

HOUSEHOLD CHORES

1. How do you help at home?
2. Do this test on-line, check your vocabulary, and discover how much you actually help at home: <http://www.esl-lab.com/vocab/v-chores.htm#practice>
3. Listen to this video, find the activities in the Present Continuous, then copy them into your notebook:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EAeC8hPTGY>
4. Who does the housework in your family? Do men, women, and children in general share in the household chores? Do you think children should do housework to receive allowance (pocket money)?
5. From the 20 household chores listed on the webpage, choose seven and write them in the column on the left below. Next, put the letter that corresponds to the indicated person in the appropriate column. (Example: 1. Throws out the garbage A - no, not usually, B - Yes, sometimes, C - yes, often, D - no, never).

| Me = A | Yes, always | Yes, usually | Yes, often | Yes, sometimes | No, not usually | No, not very often | No, hardly ever | No, never |
| Mum = B | | | | | | | | |
| Dad = C | | | | | | | | |
| (Other family member) = D | | | | | | | | |
