

Block 1: Activity 9

Eleanor Holmes Norton: The only way to make sure people you agree with can speak is to support the rights of people you don't agree with.

Florynce Kennedy: Freedom is like taking a bath -- you have to keep doing it every day!

Franklin Delano Roosevelt: True individual freedom cannot exist without economic security and independence.

Jean-Paul Sartre: Freedom is what you do with what's been done to you.

John F. Kennedy: Liberty without learning is always in peril and learning without liberty is always in vain.

Lillian Hellman: For every man who lives without freedom, the rest of us must face the guilt.

Margaret Sanger: A free race cannot be born of slave mothers.

Marie von Ebner-Eschenbach: As far as your self-control goes, as far goes your freedom.

Noam Chomsky: If we do not believe in freedom of speech for those we despise we do not believe in it at all.

Paul Tillich: Decision is a risk rooted in the courage of being free.

Ramsey Clark: A right is not what someone gives you; it's what no one can take from you.

Rosa Luxemburg: Freedom is always and exclusively freedom for the one who thinks differently.

Simone Weil: Liberty, taking the word in its concrete sense, consists in the ability to choose.

George Bernard Shaw: We are made wise not by the recollection of our past, but by the responsibility for our future.

Winston Churchill: The price of greatness is responsibility.

Booker T. Washington: Few things help an individual more than to place responsibility upon him, and to let him know that you trust him.
