

THE ROAD TO RESPECT

Definition puzzle.

Moral and civic education is	to respect others from other cultures, other social and economic backgrounds.
Road safety education is	to respect your body and understand what is right and what is wrong.
Consumer education is	to respect nature.
Peace education is	to understand that men and women are equal in every situation.
Education for equal opportunities of both sexes is	to control what you spend and know all the features of what you buy.
Environment education is	to respect and take care of other people in society.
Health and sexual education is	to respect the driving rules and be careful with cars, motorbikes, bicycles, and any other vehicle.

