

JUSTICE

EQUALITY

LIBERTY

I am fair when I put myself in someone else's shoes.

I am fair when I respect the others' opinions.

I want for others what I want for myself.

I am fair when I respect others.

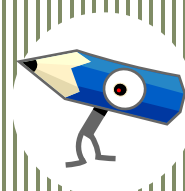

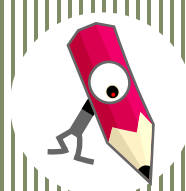

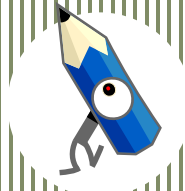

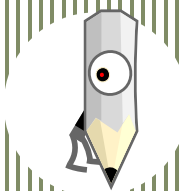

I have the freedom to love.

My freedom ends where yours begins.

I am free but I have responsibilities.

I have the freedom to decide what I do.

I have the freedom to think what I want.

I am no more than anyone else.

I am no less than anyone else.

I have the same rights as everyone else.

I am a girl and I have the same rights as you.

I am a boy and I have the same rights as you.

Girls and boys have equal rights.

I have freedom to speak.
