

Pairs (Answers)

Note to teacher: Cut the answers over the lines, print it on a sheet of different color from the questions.

169 articles.

Democratic country.

The rights and duties of the citizens.

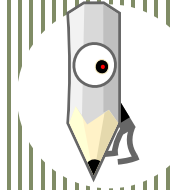

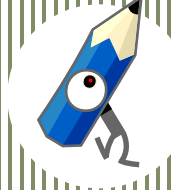

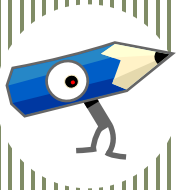

On December 6th, 1978.

A Constitutional State.

The Spanish People.

Country where everybody has laws.

The most important law of all spanish people.

Men and women over 18 years of age.

Voting to approve the law.

Adolfo Suárez González.

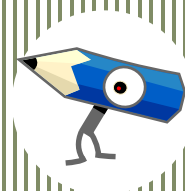

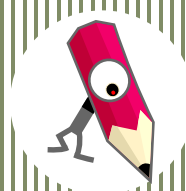

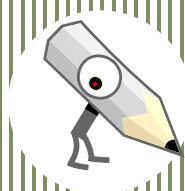

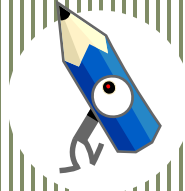

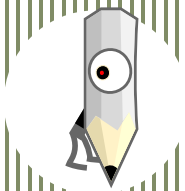

Equality and the participation of everybody.

Civil rights, constitutional rights, and social rights.

For coexistence and piece.

Period of mandate of the members of the legislature organisms. It has a duration of 4 years.

The national anthem, the flag and the shield.

To live together with other people.

Conduct that we must follow in our daily lives.

Rule that gives orders or prohibit a specified activity.

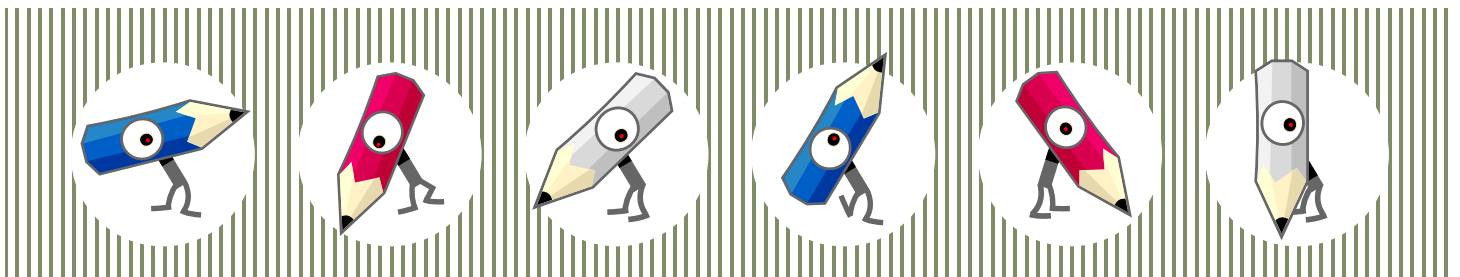

The King D. Juan Carlos I

The president and the ministers.

Rules and laws that we all must uphold.

The coexistence of citizens.

Uphold the laws.

The respect, the rights and the duties of the people, and the sanction of the breach.

Rules of relationship between people.

The civil code, the penal code and the code of traffic.

Rules in order that the vehicles and the people move safely.

Rules of punishment which are applied to those who break a law.

