

Pairs

Notice for the teacher: questions with answers.

	QUESTIONS	ANSWERS
1	The Spanish Constitution is:	The most important law of all spanish people.
2	It was approved by...	The Spanish People.
3	The day...	On December 6th, 1978.
4	Spain turns into a...	Democratic country.
5	The Spanish Constitution consists of...	The rights and duties of the citizens.
6	The Spanish Constitution contains...	169 articles.
7	The Spanish Constitution promotes...	A Constitutional State.
8	Constitutional State:	Country where everybody has laws.
9	The symbols of the Spanish Constitution are three:	The national anthem, the flag and the shield.
10	Purpose of the Spanish Constitution...	For coexistence and piece.
11	Democracy is a political system for...	Equality and the participation of everybody.
12	The Rights of the Spanish Constitution are grouped in three blocks:	Civil rights, constitutional rights, and social rights.
13	Referendum	Voting to approve the law.
14	Legislature	Period of mandate of the members of the legislature organisms. It has a duration of 4 years.
15	Who has right to vote and therefore to elect the president and a person's representative?	Men and women over 18 years of age.

Block 3: Activity 3.3

16	First president of the Spanish government:	Adolfo Suárez González.
17	The government is formed by :	The president and the ministers.
18	The court of justice takes charge of that all the citizens...	Uphold the laws.
19	The head of the state is:	The King D. Juan Carlos I
20	The policy organizes...	The coexistence of citizens.
21	Definition of coexistence:	To live together with other people.
22	In order to coexist, these are created:	Rules and laws that we all must uphold.
23	Definition of Rule:	Conduct that we must follow in our daily lives.
24	Definition of Law:	Rule that gives orders or prohibit a specified activity.
25	The rules and the laws claim...	The respect, the rights and the duties of the people, and the sanction of the breach.
26	Rules and important laws of the country:	The civil code, the penal code and the code of traffic.
27	The civil code deals with...	Rules of relationship between people.
28	The penal code contains...	Rules of punishment which are applied to those who break a law.
29	The traffic code is composed for...	Rules in order that the vehicles and the people move safely.

